

LARRY WILDE "AMERICA'S BEST-SELLING HUMORIST"
— The New York Times

GOING ON ED SULLIVAN

"Barrels of laughs ..."

"Brilliant ... poignant ... inspiring."

"Seriously funny and funnily serious."

"Quintessentially Wilde."

"Absorbing, insightful and hilarious."

A ONE MAN SHOW ABOUT LIFE IN COMEDY — AND COMEDY IN LIFE

Funnyman Larry Wilde recounts his 50 years in show business — a roller coaster ride from Jersey City shoeshine boy to nightclub comic and New York Times best-selling author. A heartwarming and hilarious valentine to the Golden Age of Comedy with reflections on love, laughter, and his friendships with the great comedians who influenced his life including Jack Benny, Johnny Carson, George Burns, Phyllis Diller, Milton Berle and Maurice Chevalier. A sparkling evening's entertainment.